COWBOY PLEASANTY.

Two of Them Killed By a Plucky Mexican, Who Pays For His Fun With His Life.

DENVER, Col., Sept. 18.—Last Friday five cowboys, under the influence of whisky, rode into Ute Creek, a small village about fifty miles east of San Antonio. Don Macedonio Aragon was standing in front of his store, and was in the act of proceeding to arrest a stray horse. The cowboys requested him to go to the rear of the store and call the clerk. Aragon refused. The cowboys then began to abuse him. Aragon, apprehending some harm, went to the house of one Vigil, procured a rifle, and proceeded to his way in search of the horse. The cowboys, seeing him with the rifle in his possession, rode toward him. One in advance of his comrades came up with Aragon, and proceeded to shake hands with him. After he had shaken hands with him, he held on to the rifle, while the remaining cowboys began firing at Aragon with their revolvers. Aragon finally disengaged his hand from the grasp of the cowboy, and sent a bullet from his rifle through one of the cowboys, which killed him instantly. Aragon then retreated to a house near by, where the cowboys were waiting. Upon the storm of bullets, he sent another bullet into the breast of one of the surviving cowboys, which instantly ended his career. He fired again and wounded another. By this time Aragon was so weak from four wounds, together with the loss of blood, he could no longer fire. The cowboys fled, and he is still a prisoner of the law.

A BRICKEN BANK.

MONTREAL, Sept. 18.—The surprise and excitement among citizens here generally when the suspension of the Exchange bank became known was intense. In financial circles the matter was taken very coolly, as bankers with practical knowledge of the institution's actual condition led them to anticipate such a consummation. From inquiries among leading bankers it is learned that since May last the bank has been in difficulties from a steady drain upon its resources. The collapse would have occurred early in the month mentioned but for the forbearance of the Dominion and provincial governments, which had large deposits therein (now reduced), and for the kindness of local banks in making advances to meet the pressure. All those friendly banks are now secured beyond all question, unless, as one of their presidents said, an earthquake occurs. The total assets as recorded to the government on the 1st inst. were $3,775,000, with total liabilities, including the $500,000 capital subscribed, of $3,370,000, showing a surplus over liabilities of all kinds of $400,000 in favor of the bank. In estimating the results of the realization of the assets, however, it must be considered that the illiquid paper being handed over to the banks is not all of the first quality. In discounting notes the bank, it is urged, looked more to getting high rates of interest than to the security offered. The management is charged with shuffling notes at a startling discount. The circulation, which has lately run over its legal limit of $500,000, is the first charge. All the deposits, which, on the 1st inst. were $3,300,000, have second rank in the course of payment. The remaining claims are only $100,000, and must be met before the shareholders become entitled to a cent. If the assets are not sufficient to meet everything the shareholders are held under the banking law for double liability, or $300,000. The creditors are, therefore, assured of getting 100 cents on the dollar, more especially as the shares are held most exclusively by wealthy people.

RAILWAY RIVALRY.

A Raging War on Passenger Rates.

CHICAGO, Sept. 18.—The war on passenger rates between the Pan-Handle and Louisville, New Albany and Chicago railroads is growing warmer as it progresses, and from present appearances before the end of the week the bottom will have entirely fallen out of Louisville rates. It is evidently the purpose of the Monon people to make the contract voluntarily assumed by the Pan-Handle as big as possible, and all of the general offices of the former road arrived in the city. They were in consultation nearly all day, but nothing in detail of their deliberations could be learned, except that a vigorous stand was determined upon. As if in defiance of their rivals' official display, the Pan-Handle people about 5 o'clock announced a further reduction of 50 cents, making the rate $4.50. There is not a doubt that this will be promptly met and a still lower cut made. An old railway official remarked: "If another cut is made, in twenty-four hours a man can go to Louisville for 50 cents." The rivalry between the lines is so direct, and the feeling so bitter, that it is not improbable that his prediction will come true. The cut to Louisville has necessarily affected the Cincinnati and Indianapolis rates, the fare to both places having been virtually reduced $3.50.

The Wabash war in rates to Council Bluffs has not changed, the other roads having refused to meet the cut, and the initial line is still adhering to the old figure to $9.50.

New York Republicans.

RICHMOND, N. Y., Sept. 18.—The Republican state convention will meet on Wednesday, but it is possible it may adjourn till the next day on account of the being the 100th anniversary of the signing of the Declaration of Independence. The usual number of delegates are already here, and it is evident that the stalwarts have the convention. This means a renomination of the present state officers, who are stalwarts, unless the independents choose to make a contest. This they are considering now. If a contest is made it will be with John A. B. for secretary of state, Albert J. B. for treasurer, and national committee members. The Greely campaign is more interesting in fact, as the competition of the state committee, because upon it hangs the possibility of New York throwing its influence for Arthur's nomination. There is also a bitter fight among the stalwarts in Albany county, where the nomination of John F. Smyth, chairman of last year's state committee, is being thrown him overboard.

Bay State Republicans.

BOSTON, Sept. 18.—The present secretary of state, treasurer, auditor, and attorney general will be renominated by acclamation by the Republican convention. There is opposition to Percie for governor, owing to his vote against counting Louisiana for Hayes.

Judge Aleck Gray Dying.

WASHTON, D. C., Sept. 18.—Judge Aleck Gray, ex-pardon clerk of the department of justice, is dying. He was an intimate friend of the late Mark Carpenter, and prominent in Iowa politics for years.

Is Fun Better than Physic?

Fun is excellent; a hearty laugh is known the whole world over to be a health promoter; but fun does not fill the bill when a man needs physic, on the other hand people take too much physic. They would be more healthy, live longer and enjoy life thoroughly if they used Dr. Jones' Red Clover Tonic, which cures all blood disorders, indigestion, kidney and liver troubles, removes pimples, and is a perfect skin cure. Can be taken by the most delicate. Only 50 cents per bottle, of Stearns & Baker.
